PORTLAND MUSEUM of ART

PORTLAND MUSEUM OF ART

PORTLAND MUSEUM of ART

The PMA is at the cultural heart of Portland, Maine, engaging more than 160,000 visitors each year with innovative exhibitions, programs, and educational opportunities. Annual support from our business and corporate partners is essential to our ability to serve our community with initiatives including:

Rotating art exhibitions from some of the most vital artists in modern and contemporary art to timeless Maine favorites

Programs and community collaborations including Mindfulness in the Galleries, Teen Night, musical performances inspired by artworks, Art in Bloom, and much more

PMA Films, an arthouse experience at the museum

Free School Tours for more than 8,000 students from preschool through college each year

Free Fridays, welcoming more than 34,000 visitors

Free admission to all visitors ages 21 and under through the Susie Konkel Pass

Art for All, the PMA's commitment to be an open, accessible, inclusive, and welcoming museum for all through exhibitions and programs that reflect our community

And more!

Sponsorship Opportunities

EXHIBITIONS

Rotating exhibitions in our William D. Hamill Gallery, Palladian Gallery, and Albert Brenner Glickman Galleries provide extended opportunities for recognition. Each exhibition is on view for approximately 3 months and reaches around 50,000 visitors.

PUBLIC PROGRAMS and EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

The PMA's extensive programs reach visitors of all ages, backgrounds, and interests, inspiring lifelong learning and engagement with the arts. Free School Tours, Family Programs, Free Fridays, and PMA Films are among the opportunities available for sponsorship.

EVENTS

Sponsorship of a PMA event provides a high-profile platform to engage with PMA audiences. Opportunities can include a single event or series. Benefits of sponsorship include logo placement on related invitations, publicity, and collateral material, and potential to speak at the event.

In-Kind Partners

Companies who support PMA events and programs through in-kind donations are acknowledged with access to special networking events and receive logo or name recognition on all related invitations, publicity, and materials. If you're interested in providing in-kind support for PMA events, contact Ashleigh Hill, at (207) 494-5346 or ahill@portlandmuseum.org.

Facility Rentals

Host an annual meeting, cocktail reception, teambuilding retreat, or other event at the PMA!
