The art collection is reflected at a nominal value. The cost of a collection item is recorded as a decrease in net assets when purchased.

The proceeds from sales of collection items are recorded as increases in net assets with temporary donor restricted when sold.

During 2021, the PMA adopted FASB Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No.

2019-03, Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958), which improves the definition of collections to align U.S. GAAP with the definition contained in the American Alliance of Museums Code of Ethics for Museums.

The collection is managed according to a policy which adheres to the standards of the American Alliance of Museums. The policy delineates responsibilities in such matters as museum ethics, acquisitions, loans, care of collections, and deaccessioning. Objects held in the collection are carefully tracked and monitored. The PMA's deaccessioning policy allows for sale or trade of an object only when it is incompatible with the PMA's collecting mission and when clear and complete title to the work is confirmed. With the adoption of ASU No. 2019-03, the PMA's policy for the use of proceeds derived from deaccessioned collection items includes direct care of the existing collection as well as acquisition of new collection items.

The PMA has adopted the following definition of "direct care":

*Collection conservation expenses, including supplies, transportation expenses, other direct expenses, and labor.

*Expenses related to cataloging, housing, and physical care of objects, including but not limited to registrar and preparatory labor expenses, supplies, expenses for storage facilities both on and off-campus, lighting, and proper monitoring of storage and exhibition environments (including dataloggers and appropriate software for tracking collection items), photographic documentation and the management of digital assets.

*Framing, mounting expenses, as well as the physical production of pedestals and other supplies for proper presentation of objects, including labor costs. Exhibition spaces as well as the care of such spaces, which may include pest control, proper lighting, security, and temperature control.

Part III, line 4:

Schedule M (Form 990) 2020

Part II Supplemental Information. Provide the information required by Part I, lines 30b, 32b, and 33, and whether the organization is reporting in Part I, column (b), the number of contributions, the number of items received, or a combination of both. Also complete this part for any additional information.

Schedule M, Line 32b:

Contributions of securities are sold through PMA's investment brokers.

All gifts of securities are sold as soon as administratively possible.

Schedule M, Line 33:

The art collection is reflected at a nominal value. The cost of a collection item is recorded as a decrease in net assets when purchased.

The proceeds from sales of collection items are recorded as increases in net assets with temporary donor restricted when sold.

During 2021, the PMA adopted FASB Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2019-03, Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958), which improves the definition of collections to align U.S. GAAP with the definition contained in the American Alliance of Museums Code of Ethics for Museums.

The collection is managed according to a policy which adheres to the standards of the American Alliance of Museums. The policy delineates responsibilities in such matters as museum ethics, acquisitions, loans, care of collections, and deaccessioning. Objects held in the collection are carefully tracked and monitored. The PMA's deaccessioning policy allows for sale or trade of an object only when it is incompatible with the PMA's collecting mission and when clear and complete title to the work is confirmed. With the adoption of ASU No. 2019-03, the PMA's policy for the use of proceeds derived from deaccessioned collection items includes direct care of the existing collection as well as acquisition of new collection items.

Part II Supplemental Information. Provide the information required by Part I, lines 30b, 32b, and 33, and whether the organization is reporting in Part I, column (b), the number of contributions, the number of items received, or a combination of both. Also complete this part for any additional information.

The PMA has adopted the following definition of "direct care":

*Collection conservation expenses, including supplies, transportation expenses, other direct expenses, and labor.

*Expenses related to cataloging, housing, and physical care of objects, including but not limited to registrar and preparatory labor expenses, supplies, expenses for storage facilities both on and off-campus, lighting, and proper monitoring of storage and exhibition environments (including dataloggers and appropriate software for tracking collection items), photographic documentation and the management of digital assets.

*Framing, mounting expenses, as well as the physical production of pedestals and other supplies for proper presentation of objects, including labor costs. Exhibition spaces as well as the care of such spaces, which may include pest control, proper lighting, security, and temperature control.

57 works of art have been accepted into the PMA collection and have not been assigned a value.

In 2020, PMA received ownership of the contents of an individual's estate by court judgement. The estate included a house with all contents and furnishings, a collection of art and decorative objects in Part II Supplemental Information. Provide the information required by Part I, lines 30b, 32b, and 33, and whether the organization is reporting in Part I, column (b), the number of contributions, the number of items received, or a combination of both. a variety of media, stock certificates, and bank accounts. The art and decorative objects are in the process of being evaluated to determine which pieces will be accepted into the collection and which pieces will be sold. All sales of art of these pieces will be sold through an auction house.

The house is under contract and is being sold by a licensed realtor. The PMA estimates the value that will be received upon liquidation of the entire estate is $1,500,000.

the 990 and audited financial statements. Following this meeting, board members reply by email to indicate their approval of the 990 as presented. The 990 is then discussed at a meeting of the executive committee of the board of trustees, before the executive committee votes to accept it.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

Trustees are asked to fill out a Conflict of Interest form annually. The procedure is outlined in PMA's "Institutional Code of Ethics and Guidelines for Professional Practice" a board-approved policy that is reviewed and signed by each incoming Trustee.

Per the policy, in the event a significant conflict of interest appears to be unavoidable, the Trustee shall seek the approval of the Board, or a duly appointed and authorized committee of the Board, prior to engaging in such action, and such approval, if given, shall result in there being no conflict with respect to the contemplated action.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

Per PMA's Bylaws, the executive committee is authorized to exercise the following specific powers and duties on behalf of the board of trustees:

(a) To enter into employment with, and to terminate the employment of, the chief executive officer (the "Director"), to negotiate and enter into employment contracts with the Director subject to final approval by the board of trustees, to annually review the performance of the Director, to determine the Director's annual compensation adjustments and benefits adjustments, to resolve all disciplinary and other issues relating to the Director's employment;

(b) To review annually the performance of any other key employees and to resolve all disciplinary and other issues relating to such employees when such tasks are specifically delegated to the executive committee by the board of trustees;

The Executive Committee in 2017 developed a compensation plan and five year contract for the PMA Director. The employment contract began on March 1, 2017 and terminates on February 28, 2022. The compensation plan was developed by an ad hoc committee of the Executive Committee. The ad hoc committee was formed to develop a multi-year plan for approval by the full Executive Committee. The ad hoc committee contracted with Career Management Associates (CMA) to provide guidance as to an appropriate level of compensation. On January 13, 2017, CMA provided a report titled: "Non-Profit Executive Compensation Analysis Report." CMA's report included data compiled from the 990 forms of specific peer group organizations identified by the PMA's board, and also compiled 990 data from a broader set of peers who reported the same nonprofit classification. Using the report's guidelines, the ad hoc committee negotiated with the Director a new five-year contract that provides remuneration within the band of reasonable compensation for a similarly situated museum director. The Executive Committee approved the terms of the new employment agreement and it was accepted by the Director and signed by all parties on May 3, 2017.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19:

PMA's governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements are made available to the public upon request. The PMA's audited financial statements are publicly posted on the PMA's website.
